Wall Cabinet System

NOVAH

Only by breaking free from constraints and fearing no boundaries can we transcend limitations to be a mighty ship leading the change. Breaking the shackles of space and exploring the ultimate technology, we share this extraordinary moment as well as the unique glory.

In addition to the ingenious integration of furniture and space, PAX makes possible seamless connection between walls and cabinets in three-dimensional space, looking as if they were made by nature. The PAX office back cabinet system is designed to open up a new pattern of space innovation by upgrading administrative office spaces with a complete cabinet system.

PAX encompasses such modular products as file cabinets, open-shelf cabinets, drawer cabinets, and wardrobes, among others. Thanks to free and flexible modular combinations, you get access to personalized solutions for administrative spaces of different sizes and styles, merely for your extraordinary taste and ideals.

- Presidential Office Space

Simple, Pure, Stylish, Elegant

The minimalist style with a sense of “breathing” brings a touch of coolness and transparency to urban life. On top of that, it brings much efficiency and convenience to young promising leaders in the office, bestowing them with a place of peace for their restless hearts.

Flexible Enough to Present a Whole New World

The hidden storage space promises multiple functions with three types of storage. Specifically, the central open-shelf cabinet is used for ornaments, the single-row cabinet without doors for files, and the hidden wardrobe for clothes. Neat and bright, it boasts a reasonable distribution and adjustable space.
