教育学家Reggio Emilia曾说一个教室有三位老师：学生、老师和环境本身。

ADMY简约型的设计，适应性强，可在任何的学习环境中工作，鼓励学生专注学习。

The educationalist Reggio Emilia once said that there are three teachers in a classroom: the student, the teacher and the environment itself.

With its simple design, Admy is adaptable and works in any learning environment, encouraging students to focus on their studies.

L-ARM TABLE LEG

L型支臂桌腿

Admy creates adaptable learning Spaces that transition easily from season to season. Unique L-shaped table legs maximize leg clearance for easy entry and exit of students. Anti-collision design details are used to support students' dynamic interaction or individual focused work, avoiding the physical pain caused by accidental impact. In addition, the responsive design includes anti-slip feet to solve the problem of uneven floors and scratches to the PVC floor.
